

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD PRIVACY NOTICE

The privacy of your personal information is important to us.

Your Rights

You have the right to view our records containing your personal information. We must tell you why we ask for your personal information, and if we've shared your information with others. You also have the right to question the accuracy of the information contained in your file.

Reason for Information Request

We request your personal information to resolve your delinquent debt owed to the Department of Industrial Relations for unpaid fees, wages, employer's assessments, penalties, costs, and interest. These debts may also include assessments and penalties against employers who have the worst safety records and the most preventable accidents. You must furnish all requested information. If you fail to comply, we may take legal action to obtain this information. (Revenue & Taxation Code Section 19290.)

Information Disclosure

We may disclose your personal information to third parties when necessary to collect your debt. If you owe a delinquent debt to the Department of Industrial Relations, the amount due may be disclosed to employers, financial institutions, process agents, or others who hold assets belonging to you.

Responsibility for the Records

The Revenue Recovery Services Bureau Director is responsible for maintaining the records for Industrial Health & Safety Collections. To obtain information about your records:
